FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--It's been traditional over the years for a president of Eastern Illinois University to deliver a commencement address at Westfield High School.

Dr. Stanley Rives will keep that significant tradition alive tonight, but the occasion will be doubly significant. Because of consolidation, tonight's class of graduating seniors will be Westfield's last.

Superintendent Don Henderson said "we are honored that President Rives has accepted our invitation to address our graduates at this very special commencement ceremony."
